STOCKPORT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Stockport Symphony Orchestra, now in its 33rd season as the Borough's orchestra, presents more great music by great composers in the Edwardian splendour of Stockport Town Hall.

In keeping with its reputation as one of the finest amateur groups in the country, the orchestra will be performing with several international artists during the forthcoming season and we hope you can join us for as many concerts as possible. In order to encourage the next generation of concert goers we offer free tickets to accompanied children to all concerts apart from the Christmas one.

The season opens with a 'made in the USA' extravaganza and closes with a firm favourite, Leland Chen, playing the popular Bruch Violin Concerto. Along the way, we have the grandeur of the Verdi Requiem, the riches of Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, a Nordic evening and return appearances from conductors Ewa Strusinska, Ed Warren and Richard Davis. We hope you can join us!

Stockport Symphony Orchestra has a website www.stockportsymphony.co.uk where you can look up information on the concerts, conductors and soloists. We are always eager to hear from our audience and you can get in touch or join the mailing list via the website.

At the Town Hall there is ample undercover parking off Edward Street for a small fee. Light refreshments and a bar are available during the interval and the bar is also open before and after performances. There is full disabled access via the ramp at the Edward Street side entrance.

Stockport Symphony Orchestra is a member of the National Federation of Music Societies and registered charity no 516159.
