

Anna McCargow

Anna McCargow, 23, is an award-winning British pianist based in Germany.

Anna started playing piano at the age of five and has received a broad musical education.

Passionate about classical music, Anna is actively pursuing career both as a soloist and as a chamber musician. She regularly performs with orchestras in Italy and Germany and her active repertoire includes piano concertos by Mozart, Beethoven, Grieg and Schumann.

From 2012 till 2019 Anna attended master classes at the Mozarteum Summer Academy, Salzburg and from 2016 studied at the Talent Music Master Courses, University of Music in Brescia, Italy, with Professor Andreas Frölich.

Anna has regularly performed with orchestras in Italy during summer festivals, playing with such conductors as Uri Segal, Sergio Baietta, and Raffaele Napoli. Her active repertoire includes piano concertos by Mozart, Beethoven, Grieg und Schumann.

In July 2021 she entered Hochschule für Musik und Tanz, Cologne, in the class of Prof. Andreas Frölich and in 2021 and 2022 took an active part in The International Chamber Music Festival, Musica Mundi, Belgium.

From January, 2023 Anna has been a musician of Live Music Now Köln e.V Project of The International Yehudi Menuhin Foundation

She is a winner of several International piano competitions: Val Tidone, Italy, 2016, 1st Prize; Leganes, Spain, 2018, 2nd Prize; International Piano Festival, Malaga, Spain, 2019, July – 1st Prize; Cesar Franck International Piano Competition, Brussels, Belgium, December, 2020 – 3rd Prize, thevBrigitte-Kempen-Competition, November, 2023, Aachen, Germany, 2nd Prize and International piano competition «Music of the World», November, 2023, Astana, Kazakhstan, 1st.Prize and Grand Prix in the Professional Category.

In 2025 Anna was the winner of the Stockport International Young Musicians Competition.